

+ Acuutech

Boosting client services by harnessing the power of software-defined storage

Solution components

Hardware

- Lenovo System x3650 M5 with Intel® Xeon® E5 family of processors
- Lenovo RackSwitch G8272 10Gb Ethernet switches

Software

- Microsoft Windows Server 2016 Datacenter Edition
- Microsoft Storage Spaces Direct (S2D) feature
- Microsoft Hyper-V

“We are very excited to be helping clients unlock the true power of software-defined storage and all of the benefits it can bring.”

— Philip Moss, Chief Product Officer, Acuutech

Acuutech[®]

Read the case study

Client success summary

To sharpen its competitive edge, Acuutech wanted to offer clients faster, more reliable and more cost-effective cloud and hybrid computing services. To enable a new, cutting-edge software-defined storage solution, Acuutech implemented Lenovo System x3650 M5 servers – helping to boost performance and cut costs.