"Functionality and reliability are key reasons for choosing Lenovo hardware. We need a backend infrastructure that we can depend on to support customers' workloads and to deliver on SLAs – with Lenovo that's exactly what we get."
—Harri Savolainen, Managing Director, Tibio

With demand for outsourced IT services growing all the time, Tibio has invested heavily in its Lenovo infrastructure. With Lenovo Flex System servers supporting operations, Tibio can deliver reliable, flexible services that keep customers satisfied.
